

ROYAL SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCE SOCIETY
 San Diego Branch Presents
JULIAN WEEKEND—NOVEMBER 9-11, 2007

Make your reservation soon, as we will sell out!

Who

♦ Southern California RSCDS adults—one by one, pairs, & groups—friendly folk one & all

What

♦ A weekend of clean air, relaxation, and fun & games

Where

♦ Camp Stevens, Julian—in the Cuyamaca Mountains one hour northeast of San Diego

It's time to plan on joining the friendly crew of RSCDS folks who trundle up to Julian each November to check out the famous apple pie, autumn leaves, crisp air, toasty hearth, and possibly a bit of winter wonderland! Yes, there's no telling whether we'll be in shorts and t-shirts basking in the sun, or building miniature snowpersons. Camp Stevens offers us Bishop's Lodge, with 24 beds in dormitory style and a "great room" for our communal activities. The weekend is largely "what you will"—as active or relaxed as you like it—join in jigsaw puzzles, dominoes, Uno, Taboo, Brewmeister—or settle into a comfy chair to read your best-seller or college textbook (you need only rouse yourself to get to the dining hall three times each day for hearty family-style meals). Hikers can enjoy a rigorous or gentle exploration of the old mines, mountains, and vistas nearby. You may choose to take part in a ceilidh as well as a one-hour dance class on Saturday, or you can just be an appreciative audience member. You'll want to pack a sleeping bag, layers of informal clothes, towels, pillow, toiletries, snacks and liquid refreshments of your choice, books, musical instruments, dance shoes, games, etc.

PLEASE MAKE YOUR RESERVATION NOW! THERE ARE JUST 24 SPACES TO RESERVE!!

The Julian weekend is a bargain, sure to please your "Scots purse." You'll have two nights lodging plus five meals, all for $110 per person. Friday evening we'll have a potluck dinner in the lodge.
